Reply of Government.- Such diversion of Temple Funds does not seem feasible.

Subject No 446
Strengthening Police Force, Chamarajnagar Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—Crime is on the increase in the Chamrajnagar Taluk. The Police Inspector, Jamedar and Dafedar have no time even to patrol the principal roads much less to go to the villages. The Police Force of the Taluk may therefore be strengthened.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Inspector General of Police.

Subject No. 447
Transfer of chattram at Bendravadi to Kowlandi.

Summary of discussion.—The chattram at Bendravadi may be transferred to Kowlandi. It will be more useful to travellers in the latter place than in the former.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Muzrai Superintendent for disposal.

Subject No. 448
Utilization of savings of Chamarajesvaraswami temple.

Summary of discussion.—The amount at the credit of Chamarajesvara temple, viz., Rs. 30,000, may be invested in the Madras Bank and the interest accruing therefrom utilized for the performance of worship in such important temples as Gopalakrishnaswami and Divyalingesvaraswami at Haradanhalli, and Bhujangesvaraswami temple at Oommathur.

Reply of Government.—Vide reply to subject No. 445. above. The question of investment will receive consideration in the Muzrai Department.

Subject No. 449
Repairs to the road from Chamrajnagar to Honganur.

Summary of discussion.—The road from Honganur to Chamrajnagar is badly in want of repair and much inconevenience is felt by the raiyats in conveying their produce for sale. This work may be put in hand soon as also the establishment of communication between the village of Ramasamudra and the Hasanur Ghat road near Chendikawadi, the distance being only 3 miles.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Deputy Commissioner, Local Fund Department.

Subject No. 450
Retransfer of certain villages from Nanjangud to Chamrajnagar.

Summary of discussion.—The undermentioned villages* which formerly belonged to the Chamrajnagar Taluk have recently been transferred to the Nanjangud Taluk. This has proved very inconvenient to the raiyats who have now to walk more than twice the distance that they formerly used to do to go to the Taluk office, the villages being situated at a distance of 18 miles from Nanjangud and only 6 or 7 miles from Chamrajnagar. The re-transfer of these villages seems desirable.

*Dasanur, Padlamarahalli, Ankusarayanapura, Doddattomma, Thoravalli, Konnur and Kagemarahalli.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Deputy Commissioner.

Subject No. 451
Prevention of floods in the Kapila river damaging town.

Summary of discussion.—The roads in the town of Nanjangud were inundated and many houses damaged du-